REF: New Employee Announcement: Gary King
Sales Engineer and Product Specialist for IPS/Foxboro

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Gary King with a start date of April 20th, 2009 as a Sales Engineer and Product Specialist for IPS/Foxboro, he will be based out of his home in Philadelphia. PA.

Most recently, Gary was a regional sales manager for Invensys Process Systems, an automation solutions provider, with responsibilities for growing the company's sales through existing and new channel partners. Gary will be responsible for executing a strategic business development initiative for WEISS INSTRUMENT with a clear focus in growing our business within the targeted market sectors. This will create additional opportunities on all of our other product lines and excel our growth strategy.

We have taken a strategic approach to make the necessary investment in our operations & manpower to grow our business during the times of turmoil and create opportunities. It will require our organization to create fast reflexes, an aggressive attitude and serious changes to the status quo. Weiss will be out there looking for prospects with an expanded direct sales force to support its clients and the manufacturers it represents.

While many businesses' have cut costs to survive in 2009, we will be out there looking for prospects. Our team will lead us out of a psychological funk and at the same time tailor our business to focus on a new reality which will create opportunities and operational excellence.

I strongly believe that these bold moves during bad times will pay off big opportunities. These Difficult times will create winners & losers and Weiss will be one of those winners.

He can be reached on (610) 457-8372 (Mobile) email: gking@weissinstrument.com

As is our normal procedure, if you have any specific requests for Gary, leads or action items that need his attention, please e-mail or FAX requests to sales@weissinstrument.com , or to our FAX # 412-344-5504, to insure we respond as quickly as we can, even if Gary is traveling, on sales calls or otherwise unavailable.

We are extremely pleased to have him join us and add his extensive sales management experience to that of our current organization.

Please help us welcome Gary in his new position here at WEISS INSTRUMENT, LLC.

Regards,

WEISS INSTRUMENT, LLC.
